PROCLAMATION.

A year of general peace and prosperity is drawing to a close. During this period, our young State has steadily advanced in her rapid career towards wealth and greatness. Her resources have received a ample development. New avenues of trade and intercommunication have been opened, and a rich in petro-geous oil departments of industry. Labor in all its legitimate spheres of exertion, has been abundantly rewarded. A generous harvest has filled the land with plenty, while health and happiness have prevailed with all. In the enjoyment of these great blessings, we should not be unmindful of the glorious gifts of all good gifts, the manifold exhibitions of whose toward and glorious meetings on every hand, should not we mark express our gratitude for these beauties. I, on this day, Thursday the 20th day of November, 1856, by appointment of the Public-Printers and Post-Office, do hereby, the State, testifying whereof, I have hereunto subjoined my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of (L. S.) Wisconsin to be affixed, Done at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, 20th day of October, A. D. 1856.

By the Governor, GOLES B. BURFORD.

John W. HORN, Asst. Secy. of State.

KNOW NOTHINGISM.

Our heart is stirred within us. In the very hour of triumph, before the first note of rejoicing over the glorious victory achieved in this State, has died away on the echoing winds, the sounds of discord grieved us from afar. We had hoped that the result of the elections this fall, the defeat of Fremont in those States where National Know Nothingism had been strong, and recurred to his base front, and the triumphant success of the Republican party in those States where it repudiated the order and disclaimed all fellowship with its principles, had warned all true Anti-Slavery men of the folly of dividing the opposition by the continuance and revival of the proscriptive organization known as the American or Know Nothing party. But we are sorry to hear that the friends of this order are now at work throughout the State, organizing in secret their lodges, and seeking again to control the organization of both political parties, as it had done in time past, and that it proposes now to take the field, not as an open political organization, but by its secret machinery and its Machiavellian policy. It intend still to work in the dark, and by holding the balance of power, make both of the political parties subservient to its wishes. It succeeded last fall in nominating one of its members for Governor, and it elected him by a clear majority, while all the other candidates on the ticket opposed to Know Nothingism, were defeated. It has just played the same game in Fond du Lac county, electing part of the Republican and part of the Buchanan ticket, cutting and defeating, by preconcert, the nominees of both parties, who are not members of the Know Nothing order. It has played that game in more instances than men dream of, in this State. And the very men engaged in it often denounce and ridicule Know Nothingism, as if they were its worst enemies. We could name Fremont men in this State, who have given public and private assurances that they were not Know Nothings, who, we can prove in any court of justice, have been inducted into the Know Nothing order, and have been seen inside of their lodges. And this, too, in both parties.

COL. BENTON, says the St. Louis Democrat, has accepted invitations to lecture for annual literary associations in the east, whose lectures, it says, will be political, and will be designed to restore that political policy which demagogues have partially outraged. The powerful Republican party of the North will hearken to counsel from the father-in-law of Fremont, which would fall unheeded or unheard, if spoken by any man out of their own ranks; and such counsel as Benton is capable of giving, a Republican leader dare give, even if he were capable without sacrificing himself.

The Republican party of the North understand that Benton opposed Fremont and supported Buchanan, and went out of his way to make a speech in Congress by proxy, in support of the Kansas-Nebraska Act, that origin of all our present strife. If Benton has any political lectures to give he would do well to bestow them upon the Border Ruffians of the South, who trample Liberty and the Constitution in the dust, and outrage all laws, human and divine. The North is not the place for lectures against sectional strife. Those who have opened the flood gates of sectional strife and discord are the ones who need lecturing.

GOING UP AGAIN.—The stock of the La Crosse road last Wednesday went up to 75cts, and on Thursday to 80 cents, and after the Board 82 was bid cash, and no sales. It ought to be at par. Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. bonds 8 per cent, sold at 75 cents.

It is Outagamie Co. the Buchanans forged and published a letter pretending to be from a Know Nothing, calling on the brethren to go for Fremont, by which, the Appleton Free Press says, 150 voters who would have voted for the Buchanan ticket, were induced to vote for Buchanan.

The Racine Democrat says the election of Buck and Breck, and a majority of both Houses of Congress, is glory enough for four years. From present appearances we are inclined to think it is about all they will have.

The North Star has a scurrilous article on Col. Fremont, under the heading of, "Look at this Picture, Brief Sketch of the Career of a Surveyor Dandy with his hair parted in the middle." Three-fourths of the column is left blank, though it is better occupied thus, than it usually is.

The Racine Democrat refuses to thank the Democracy of its own county, because, it says, they deserve no thanks for their conduct at the late election, but instead thereof, it thanks the Buchananites of this county.

By a despatch to the Sentinel, dated Kalamazoo, we learn that the train going east on the Michigan Central road, on board of which were the excursionists bound for Monroe, ran off the track this morning, injuring several persons, but no one from Milwaukee.

The vote for Presidential electors in this State, as far as heard from, stands—Fremont, 22,960; Buchanan, 9,853. Fremont's majority Recd as long ago as 1701, she called upon Nineteenth of them were Framers. They looked forward to defeat, and foresaw the cause. I found the feeling universal among them, that, after this election, they would add to their creed, "Americans shall rule America."

"I have fought Know Nothingism from the start to the death. It was conceived in sin, and its purpose was to overshadow the Anti-Slavery cause—it was unitary, and its secret machinery was bad, but, at the bottom of it lies a truth that takes hold like vice upon the judgment and interests of this people."

"The issue is coming—no power on earth can stay it. It will not down, and when it comes, it will sweep like the Sioux, and cut like a two-edged sword. Is the Free Democrat, going to resist this spontaneous impulse of the American people, and be ground to impalpable powder by it? I hope not. The Free Democrat cannot stay this storm. We cannot stay it—but we can use and guide it, and shall we not do so? That is all. I don't wish to see the Republican party divided, but held together—increased and march forward to splendid triumph. I will not help to raise that storm—but it will come. I feel it in the very marrow of my bones. Will the Free Democrat, the Commonwealth, the Tribune, &c., be reasonable?"

That is the question?"

We have quoted these extracts to show our readers just what is going on in this State at this time. We answer our friend, that we cannot speak for other presses, but that the Free Democrat will try to be reasonable, and, when it sees any good reason for forsaking a life-long devotion to Anti-Slavery principles, to Human Brotherhood and Christianity, for the narrow and proscriptive, Anti-Republican and Anti-Christian doctrine of Know Nothingism, we shall not go into a secret Lodge to make our reputation, but shall do it openly and publicly. But till then we shall resist this movement, firmly, constantly, perseveringly, as a gross breach of faith, and a violation of principle on the part of all Republicans, whether we stand alone or with a multitude. And we have no fears of being ground to powder, either. We have passed safely through worse whirlwinds than Know Nothingism can get up in this State, and we are willing to rely on the good sense of the people for the final verdict. We know that Know Nothingism will try to dictate a U. S. Senator this winter, as it tried to, two years ago: that John Lockwood will be on hand at Madison with the whole Know Nothing party of the State in his spacious pockets, but in our judgment they will have no better success this time than they had two years ago.

Men of Wisconsin! Will you no longer fool and distract and befooled, with this phantom of Know Nothingism—fear of the Pope? The Slave Power is the Pope in America, and the leaders of the Slave Democracy its prelates and cardinals. Slavery is the scarlet beast, red with the blood of Human Liberty, and its gory lash and chinking chains are uplifted for your limbs, and the men whom you should most fear are Protestant Americans, who shout themselves hoarse for Slaveholders, and mock at the tears and groans and blood of outraged men and women in Kansas. Up and at them! But let the poor Pope, who keeps his throne only by the aid of foreign bayonets, cling to his scepter amid the despoils of the old world, but be it yours and ours to teach a better faith and a baptism practice—the baptism of Freedom, and the faith of an equal Human Brotherhood.

COL. BENTON, says the St. Louis Democrat, has accepted invitations to lecture for annual literary associations in the east, whose lectures, it says, will be political, and will be designed to restore that political policy which demagogues have partially outraged. SENATOR SUMNER'S RECEPTION IN BOSTON.

Immense Outpouring of the People.

Address of Welcome by Governor Gardner and Hon. Josiah Quincy—Mr. Sumner's Response.

BOSTON, Monday, Nov. 3.

This day Charles Sumner, despite the wishes of his physician and the entreaties of his friends, abandoned the retreat to which his exhausting illness had rendered his removal necessary, and returned to Boston for the purpose of casting his vote, on Tuesday morning, in the election of this people.

The people determined on celebrating his arrival in a worthy manner as their sympathies, their respects and their patriotism could suggest.

Any attempt of mine to convey by words an adequate idea of the scene would be sheer presumption. It were no difficult task to make a statistical estimate of the number of horses, of carriages, of men that were present to describe the flags and decorations; to give the order of procession in detail, and to record the places through which it passed;—but the and enthusiasm, the exultant joy, the wild delight, the emotions of pride, of patriotism and of pity with which the contemplation of the scene swelled every heart, and dimmed every eye; the overwhelming moral grandeur of the whole display,—these simply put all descriptions to shame.

I have fought Know Nothingism from the start to the death. It was conceived in sin, and its purpose was to overshadow the Anti-Slavery cause—it was unitary, and its secret machinery was bad, but, at the bottom of it lies a truth that takes hold like vice upon the judgment and interests of this people.

The people determined on celebrating his arrival in a worthy manner as their sympathies, their respects and their patriotism could suggest.

Any attempt of mine to convey by words an adequate idea of the scene would be sheer presumption.

It were no difficult task to make a statistical estimate of the number of horses, of carriages, of men that were present to describe the flags and decorations; to give the order of procession in detail, and to record the places through which it passed;—but the and enthusiasm, the exultant joy, the wild delight, the emotions of pride, of patriotism and of pity with which the contemplation of the scene swelled every heart, and dimmed every eye; the overwhelming moral grandeur of the whole display,—these simply put all descriptions to shame.

I have fought Know Nothingism from the start to the death. It was conceived in sin, and its purpose was to overshadow the Anti-Slavery cause—it was unitary, and its secret machinery was bad, but, at the bottom of it lies a truth that takes hold like vice upon the judgment and interests of this people.

The people determined on celebrating his arrival in a worthy manner as their sympathies, their respects and their patriotism could suggest.

Any attempt of mine to convey by words an adequate idea of the scene would be sheer presumption.

T. W. Matthew & Co., 239 West Water Street have opened a store, for the sale of whips, cigar, Yankee Notions &c. Also are manufacturers of candies. Give them a call.

YEAST CAKES—Merrill & Perkins manufacture yeast cakes, which they warrant to be the best in market. They are undoubtedly an excellent article. They are also very good for persons in the habit of getting up late in the morning. All that is necessary is to put a box in your sleeping apartment, and you will rise before daylight in the morning.

RARE ENTERTAINMENT.—Fr. Holzhuber, a young and talented artist of this city, gives a musical entertainment, at Young's Hall, tomorrow evening. He will be assisted by the best musical talent in our city, including Mr. Balatka's orchestra. A great attraction is the disposal of seventeen oil paintings to the holders of tickets in the audience.

DR. BELLOM'S OPINION OF HOSPITALS.—
TERESA BUTTER—SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 14.

—Some months since, while recovering from an attack of bilious fever, I was requested to try Hoster's Bitter, an article peculiarly suited to the condition of my patient. I found it to be of great service to him, restored the powers of my digestive organs, and at the same time kept my bowels gently open. I have no objection in saying that, although in some degree in practice, it has, in every case where I have used it, produced a change. In speaking truly, I can pull a patient up to the mark, if he pretends to claim to be a SARDIARD BELL, N. D.

Diseases of any kind, will find C. G. Jones' Ministrations the only remedy which will cure their drooping constitutions, except all bad humor from the blood, except to a stupor and healthy action, and by its toning properties, will keep the body light and vigor. We can only say, Sirs, A single bottle will cure a chronic Sarcoplasma in existence. It contains no Mercury, Opium, or any other noxious or poisonous drug, and can be given to the most delicate infant without hesitation. Some of the most delicate curers in the city of Richmond, Va. can testify to its good effects.

Important to Architects and Builders !

THE UNDERSIGNED
HAVING SECURED THE RIGHT TO USE
BILLINGS'

Patent Fire and Water Proof

CEMENT ROOFING !

In 28 Counties of this State, including Milwaukee and Sheboygan.

Non-conductor of Heat,
Thus rendering the upper stories of a building as cool as the lower. It is

Effectually Fire Proof,

Thus affording complete protection from any possible fire to the roof externally.

It is Entirely Water Proof,

And as it is impervious to water, passing over, or contained in it, render it invaluable to those who desire to use salt water. It is more durable than tin, zinc, slates, or any other material, roofing, in use, and is the only material known to the chemical world, the most prominent of which is Gutta-percha. In fact, it possesses all the qualities necessary for a good and efficient roof.

The undersigned are now ready to receive orders and furnish satisfactory testimonials.

Heard What They Say Who Have Seen It Used

We, the undersigned, having had an opportunity of seeing roofs covered with Billings' Patent Cement Roofing, put to every severe test, were so impressed with its superior qualities as to have our own buildings covered with it, and would certainly, from what we have seen of it, recommend it to all persons who desire to have their buildings covered with a roof, that is both fire and water proof roof.

PETER SWEAT,

JNO. D. ARNOLD, & C., Chicago.

WILLIAM CLARK Waukesha.

For sale by — J. M. HURLBURT, Waukesha.

It is one of the most valuable inventions of the age—
Central Illinois.

Having been subjected to a rigid and careful test during the past year upon various new buildings in this city, we find in every instance that the roof is triumphant within our knowledge for the purposes intended.

It has all the elements requisite for a good roof. The materials are enduring, not being subject to decay; the most elegant, and, when properly applied, can cause the heat to radiate. It is fire and water proof, and its cheapest and the ability to be water proof, places it within the touch of every one. We have no doubt that within three years from this time, its unapproachable superiority in its adoption in all the towns in the North west, in place of the inflammable and expensive materials now in use.—Waukesha Gazette.
